

NSC BRIEFING

25X1

3 July 1957

MIDDLE EAST DEVELOPMENTS

- I. Lebanese parliamentary elections ended on 30 June with pro-Western forces holding at least 46 of the 66 seats. Malik won 10602 to 276.
- II. King Saud has instituted widespread security precautions and initiated personnel changes to strengthen his position and protect Trans-Arabian Pipeline from Egyptian-Syrian sabotage. Line is vulnerable in Syria.
- III. King Saud said last week that he has taken action to weaken Syrian leftists and "in a few days everything will become clearer."
  - A. Saud's moves not likely to effect any real change.
- IV. Meanwhile, King Hussein is also interested in promoting political change in Syria and has asked American representatives for support.
- V. Egypt and Syria are continuing clandestine efforts in Jordan.

25X1

- B. The last British troops in Jordan will depart from Aqaba on 6 July - 10 weeks ahead of schedule.

- VII. [redacted] the three submarines recently delivered to Egypt by the Soviets are now flying the Egyptian flag and have been painted with Arabic numbers.

Approved For Release 2004/01/15 : CIA-RDP79R00890A000800090001-9

25X1

Approved For Release 2004/01/15 : CIA-RDP79R00890A000800090001-9